Brief Background:

As per Sec 135 of Companies Act 2013, with effect from 1st April 2014, every Company having Net worth of Rupees 500 crores or more, or turnover of Rupees 1,000 crores or more, or a net profit of Rupees 5 crores or more during any Financial year (FY) ('any financial year' implies 'any of the three preceding financial years' as per clarification issued by Ministry of Corporate Affairs) shall constitute a Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Committee, in order to undertake activities that would come under the purview of CSR activities. If the Company falls under the above criteria, the Company should ensure that it spends, in every FY, at least two per cent of the average net profits of the Company made during the three immediately preceding FYs.

IREP Credit Capital Private Limited (IREP) falls under the above-mentioned criteria.

IREP believes in giving back to the Society and its people through its Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) activities. We predominately work towards providing a better education to the less privileged kids along with other activities as per this Policy.

Constitution of CSR Committee of the Board:

As per the Act, the CSR Committee shall have three or more Directors, out of which at least one shall be Independent Director. The Board of Directors of the Company have approved in its meeting dated 28th April 2014 the formation of CSR Committee.

The Committee shall consist of all Directors.

The Committee shall meet atleast twice in a financial year (applicable from FY 2015-16 onwards), or more often, if required so.

Activities that can be pursued under CSR Activities:

The list of activities eligible under CSR are specified in Schedule VII of the Companies Act, 2013, as amended from time to time. MCA notification dated 27th February 2014 with details of CSR activities enclosed with this policy. Out of the listed eligible project / program / activities, the Company will be focusing at one or more of the following project / program / activities:

- 1) Eradicating hunger, poverty and malnutrition, promoting preventive health care and sanitation and making available safe drinking water
- 2) Promoting education
- 3) Contributions or funds provided to technology incubators located within academic institutions which are approved by the Central Government
- 4) Rural development projects.
- 5) Any other activities / project / program as specified in Schedule VII of the Companies Act, 2013, as amended from time to time, subject to the approval of the board.

- 6) All activities under the CSR activities should be environment friendly and socially acceptable to the local people and Society.
- 7) Contribution towards C.M relief fund shall be a part of CSR activities.

While deciding on selecting a CSR project / program / activity, the Company shall keep in view, interalia, the cost effectiveness in implementing the same.

CSR Spending:

Whenever the Company falls under the criteria stipulated by Companies Act 2013, the Company should ensure that it spends, in that FY, at least two per cent of the average net profits of the Company made during the three immediately preceding FYs. The Company shall give preference to the local areas and areas around it where it operates, for spending the amount earmarked for CSR activities. The surplus arising out of the CSR projects or programs or activities shall not form part of the business profit of a company.

CSR Reporting:

A report, as specified, shall be submitted to the Board about the amount spent for CSR activities during the FY.

The Composition of the CSR Committee, contents of the CSR approved policy and CSR initiatives undertaken by the Company shall be disclosed in the annual Board of Directors report to the General Body of the Company, in the specific format as required in the notification, and also shall be displayed on the company's website.

Review of the CSR policy:

The CSR committee/ Board shall monitor and review the CSR policy annually, or if required, at more frequent intervals.

Monitoring mechanism:

The CFO / The Compliance officer shall monitor all the aspects with regards to CSR in the Company and submit report to the CSR Committee/Board.
